Teaching Australian Literature: from classroom conversations to national imaginings

Edited by Brenton Doecke, Larissa McLean Davies and Philip Mead

Price only $34.95 (inc GST) plus $8.00 postage

Brings together teachers, teacher educators, creative writers and literary scholars in an inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature.

This title looks at the role of Australian literature in the school curriculum, the selection of Australian texts, national identity, and how English teachers can engage students in reading Australian texts. Published in the context of the implementation of the new Australian Curriculum : English.
