LOCATING THE LOCAL IN THE NATIONAL

Guest Editors Karen Moni and Cal Durrant

Editorial 2
Karen Moni and Cal Durrant

National Perspectives 6

Keep Your Eyes on the Horizon and Your Feet on the Ground:
Some Reflections on Implementing the Australian Curriculum: English 13
Karen Moni

Why Indigenous Perspectives in School? A Consideration of the Current Australian
Education Landscape and the Ambiguities to be Addressed in Literacy Teaching 20
Cara Shipp

Using Literature Circles to Inquire into the Big Themes:
Exploring The Refugee Experience 25
Erika Boas

Making Meaning with Grammar: A Repertoire of Possibilities 29
Debra Myhill, Helen Lines and Annabel Watson

Searching for Ways with Grammar: Reflections on Keynotes
by Debra Myhill & Wayne Sawyer 39
Jenni Evans

The Language of Connection 41
Eva Gold and Deb Simpson

The Idea of Place: Reading for Pleasure and the Workings of Power 44
Susan Midalia

Year 10 English: Australian Texts and The Battle for Survival 52
Alison Robertson

The Road to Mandalay: A Journey Towards Cultural Understanding 59
Annette Moul Department of Education, Tasmania

New Visions: Exploring Australian Identity through Films Highlighting Experiences of Indigenous Australians: Year 8 Film unit 65
Monika Wagner and Jennifer Wenlock

Preparing High Achieving English Teachers to Work in Disadvantaged Schools:
‘I’ll Teach Shakespeare when I’m 60’ 69
Jo Lampert, Bruce Burnett and Sue Davie

Autonomy in Teaching: Going, going … gone 78
Misty Adoniou

Reviews 87

Reading and Viewing 91
Deb McPherson